We love filling your requests! But imagine the convenience and the time saved when you avoid waiting for us to get to your request, retrieve it, and deliver it. Some articles are already available online for free, and finding them is even quicker than filling out an ILLiad request.

Which articles are free for me to access? We have online subscriptions to thousands of publications. Most free articles were published within the last ten years, but you might be surprised at what you can find! Some online journals go back to the 1800s!

How do I find these journals? Here are our tricks of the trade:

- Ejournals: Ejournals are accessible from the library's home page (library.ttu.edu). Simply click on the black E-Journals tab at the top of the page. Enter the title of the journal that contains your article in the search box and click on "search." If your journal title does not appear try using the "contains" option. If you get too many results, you can narrow them by using "exact." You may also need to eliminate the subtitle from your journal title to get the results you need. If you still get no results, skip to the "Google" option.

When your journal title pulls up, our holdings will be in lighter text under the journal title. After you click the journal title you will be prompted to enter the article's information. If your citation is correct, you should be taken to the PDF of your article!

- Articles: Click on the tan Articles tab at the top of the page, enter the article title in the search box, and click on "Search." In a few moments, a set of article titles and abstracts will appear. Click on the red circle or the FT (fulltext) icon to be taken to a link to the article you want.

- Google: If you are unable to find your article using Ejournals or Articles, you may be able to use Google & Google Scholar. Simply type in the article title with quotation marks around it to ensure that your results are narrow and accurate enough to sort through. If a PDF is available, the link will have [PDF] to the left hand side.

- If you are not using a computer on campus, you have to log in with your Eraider to access full content articles. The login prompt will be on the top right hand side of the Find-It-Fast screen.
